The Artist (PG) 100 mins

"The first award winning silent film in 90 years. The Artist might just be moving pictures, but pictures are seldom as moving as this one"
Robbie Collin, The Telegraph

Hollywood, 1927: As silent movie star George Valentin, charming, raffish and a ham actor in the greatest tradition wonders if the arrival of talking pictures will cause him to fade into oblivion, he sparks with Peppy Miller, a young dancer set for a big break, much to the upset of his wife. This film is suffused with overpowering charm and is intensely watchable and endearing.

"Some films contain moments of such pure, infectious happiness that even the most black-hearted cynic has to throw up their hands in surrender and break out into an enormous grin. The Muppets begins with just such a moment, and it lasts for 110 minutes." Robbie Collin, The Telegraph

Woman in Black (12A) 95 mins

A young lawyer (Daniel Radcliffe) travels to a remote village where he discovers the vengeful ghost of a scorned woman is terrorizing the locals. Based on 1987 stage play which hit the West End in 1989 and is the second longest running play in the history of the West End (after Mousetrap).
